

Dirty Laundry Quilting Block: Tightly Whities

Version 1.0 (12/29/2017)

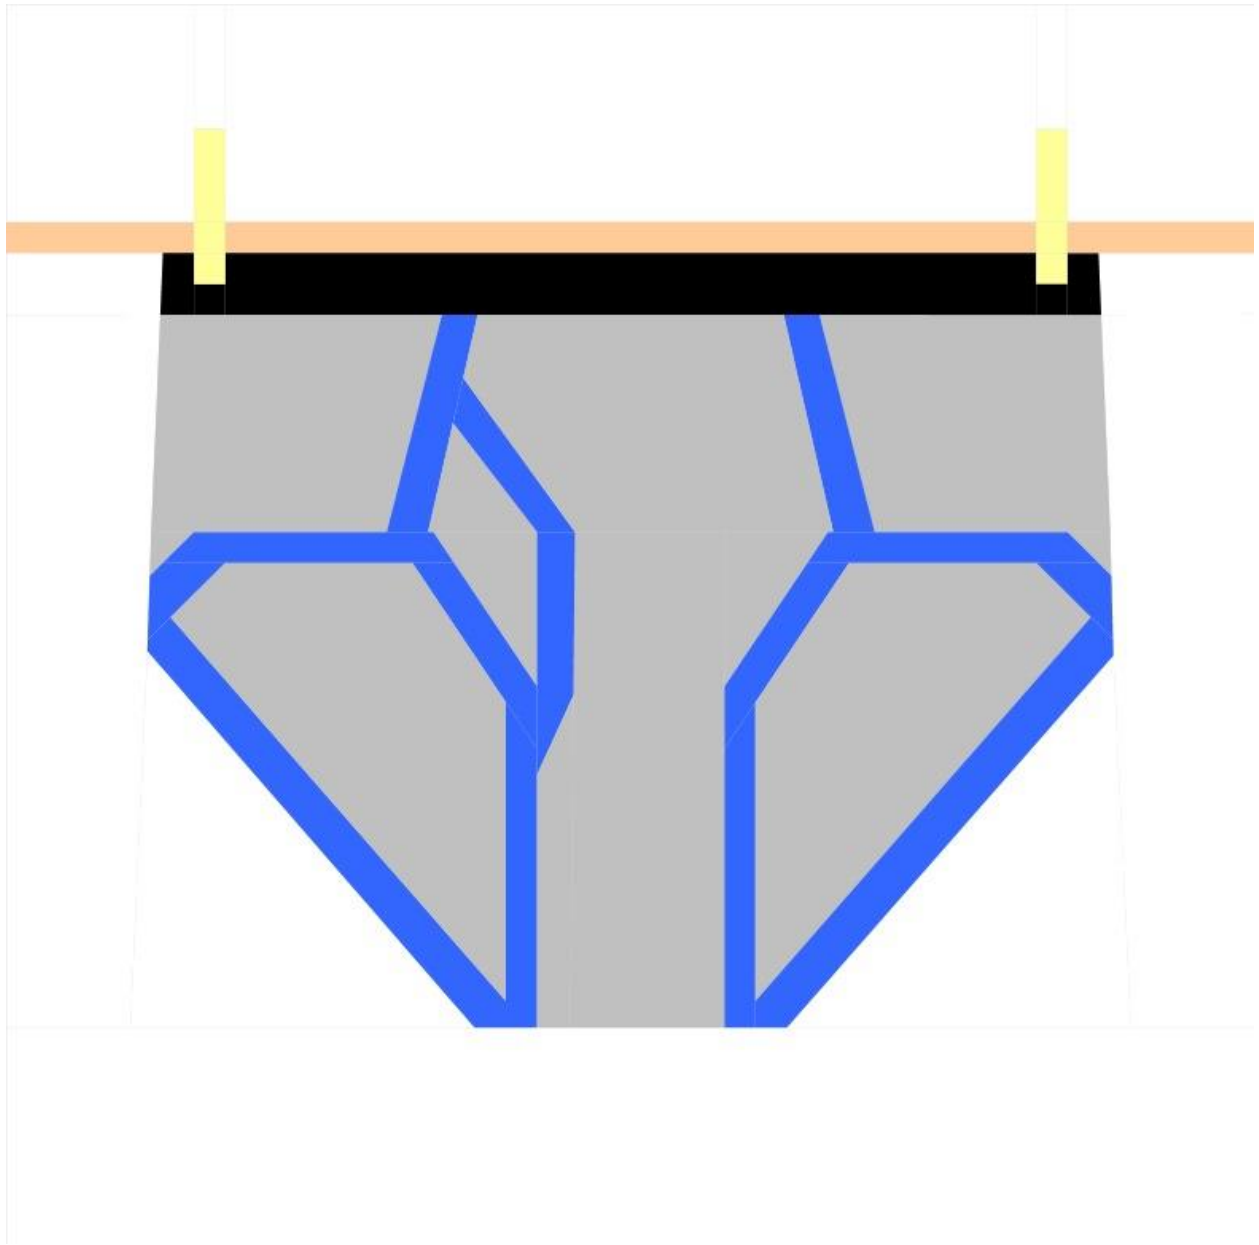

Pattern by Amy Albin (strangequilting.blogspot.com)

Thank you so much for choosing to make a block in my “Dirty Laundry” series. These blocks are free for you to use any way that you want to. Feel Free to use these patterns to make anything you can think of in any manner you want, but please do not sell the pattern itself since I am giving it away for free. I encourage you to have fun and embellish these blocks however you want, but may I suggest buttons, bows and ruffles! I may have suggestions for different versions, but please do not feel constrained by those suggestions! Experiment and have fun! If you have any suggestions to make the pattern better or would like to share what you have made with these blocks, feel free to email me (oddetsy@gmail.com) or leave a comment on my blog (strangequilting.blogspot.com). I would love to share your creations!

Note: All of my blocks in this series can be lined up in a row to make a clothesline effect. Some I develop in the future may be longer than this block. I will note this in the directions.

This pattern is for a men or boys style tightly whities. Keep the colors dark and solid for a masculine feel, or use novelty fabrics for a youthful flare! Animal print could make them a bit racy!

The block as it is should be a finished 12 inch block. There are ¼ inch seams. There is a total of 6 colors in this block.

Construction:

This is a paper-piecing block. The pieces are constructed and then sewn together. Each piece is labeled A through L. Construction goes as follows:

Join (A+B+C)+D = MAIN

Join. E+F. Add to MAIN

Add G and H to MAIN.

Add I to MAIN.

Join J+(K+L). Add to MAIN.
